BY SPECIAL APPOINTMENT

To Her Majesty the Queen,
33 COCKSPUR STREET, CHARING CROSS,
London.

Dent's Chronometers, Watches, and Clocks
Have long held preëminent rank, as may be seen from the Reports of various Scientific Persons.

THE ASTRONOMER ROYAL (G. B. AIREY, Esq.), in his Report to the Admiralty of this date (on forty Chronometers by various makers entered for the annual to stand FIRST IN THE ORDER OF MERIT. His opinion of its excellence is thus expressed :

"No. 1. M. F. DENT (33 Cockspur Street), 25,334."

"This is the finest Chronometer that we have ever had on trial."

N.B. The late Astronomer Royal (J. POND, Esq.), reporting in 1829 on the celebrated public trial, by order of the Lords of the Admiralty, which lasted 13 years (during which nearly 500 Chronometers were tested), says :

superior to any other yet tried."

THE RUSSIAN IMPERIAL ASTRONOMER, M. STRUVE, of St. Petersburg, reporting upon 81 Chronometers tested by the Russian Chronometrical Expedition in

"The Dent Chronometers have held first rank in a brilliant manner.
They contributed, beyond dispute, the most effectually to the exactitude of the results. M. STRUVE."

By command of the Emperor, the Russian Gold Medal of the highest order of merit was presented to Mr. DENT.

In testimony of the excellence of DENT's TURRET CLOCKS,
G. B. AIREY, Esq., Astronomer Royal, says :

"9 Hyde Park Street, W., 14th Nov. 1861.

"The Chronometer Watch you made for me in December 1859 has never been affected by travelling or riding ; its variation at the end of a year was only 45 seconds. It has proved in every respect a most satisfactory Watch. W. G. ARMSTRONG.

PREFACE.

THE present edition of the DIRECTORY contains an important section (pp. 47 to 80) on the Vatican Council. For the Diary of the Council and the List of the Fathers, which are given in this section, the Editor is much indebted to a valuable book, entitled The Vatican Council from its Opening until its Pro-rogation, published at 27 Wellington-street, W.C. The said Diary and List of Fathers have been drawn up with great care, but they are not to be regarded as official.

Besides the addition of the section on the Council, several alterations have been made in the Directory, for the sake of greater accuracy or usefulness.

Rules observed in the compilation of Part III. :

1. When the same Priest appears in charge of a Mission, the services are printed as before, if no alteration is requested by the Priest or by the Bishop of the Diocese. But when there has been a change of the Priest in charge, it is thought better, if no instructions are given, to reprint only the more important services of the Sundays and Holidays.

2. The names of the Clergy in the Alphabetical List are compared yearly with the sheets of each Diocese, as revised by their Lordships the Bishops; and names not appearing in those sheets are not retained in the said List, unless instructions be sent each year for their insertion.

Communications for the Editor of the Directory are to be addressed, Rev. W. A. Johnson, 8 York-place, London, W. It is earnestly requested that all information sent to him for next year's Directory may be forwarded before October 25th. Changes of names and other slight changes, taking place after that date, will, if communicated as soon as they occur, be inserted, as far as possible, down to Nov. 16th. The omission by the Clergy, in the notices of their Missions, of such details as are only of local interest, would enlarge the space available for information of general interest to the Catholic public.

Notices for insertion in Part IV., general Advertisements, and names for the Obituary or for the list of Anniversaries, are to be sent to the Publishers, Messrs. Burns, Oates, and Co., 17 Portman-street, London, W.: Notices and Advertisements before Nov. 15th; names for the Obituary or list of Anniversaries by Nov. 1st. Names of persons subsequently deceased can be inserted up to Nov. 20th.

The difference between the copies of the Directory prepared for the Clergy and those prepared for the Laity is only this: that in the latter, instead of the Latin Ordo recitandi, &c., prefixed to the Directory, there is a Calendar, or abridged translation of the said Ordo, in English.

* For insertions in the Obituary, when they do not exceed two lines, a charge will be made of 2s. 6d.; and of 1s. for inserting name and date in the list of Anniversaries. But the names of Priests who have died upon the Mission in England will be inserted gratis, once in the Obituary, and for five years after their death in the list of Anniversaries.*

Information as to charges of Notices for Part IV., and of Advertisements, may be obtained of the Publishers.

NOTIFICATIO

Promulganda in Ecclesiis tum Londin., tum Liverp., et in Diocesisibus Beverlacensi et Suthwarcensi, Dominica prima cujuslibet trimestris.

Relatives, Sponsors, and Friends of Poor Catholic Children, and Catholics generally, are requested to take notice of the following Instructions :

1. When a Poor Catholic Child is under the necessity of going into the Workhouse, the Priest of the District should, if possible, be informed of it beforehand, in order that he may at once procure the Child's Baptismal Certificate, or obtain such other evidence of its Religion, and that of its Parents, as may be required by the authorities to insure the Child's being classed in the Workhouse Register as a Catholic. In defect of such information, it will be entered as a Protestant, and may so remain through life.

2. The Child, when taken to the Workhouse, should be accompanied by some one who can declare to the Master or Superintendent that it is a Catholic, and can demand that it be entered as such in the Creed Register.

3. As the protection of the Religion of the Poor is a great work of charity, it is urgently impressed on all persons who either accompany or know of the removal of any Child to the Workhouse, that they should immediately make the case known to the Clergy, in order that they may prevent the Proselytism of the Poor.

4. The Clergy will feel grateful for every assistance they receive to further this important object ; and they will cheerfully procure the necessary Registers without expense to any one.

All Feasts of Our Lord and of the Blessed Virgin.

St. Gregory the Great, March 12.

St. Patrick, March 17.

Venerable Bede, Oct. 29.

Also, for the benefactors of the Poor-School Committee, on the Feasts and during the Octaves of St. George, April 23; of the Sacred Heart, 3d Sund. after Pent; and of St. Edward, Oct. 13.

There are, moreover, Indulgences specially granted to some of the Dioceses.

NOTE. An Indulgence is, a remission granted by the Church, to those who are already free from the guilt of all mortal sin, of the whole, or of a part, of the temporal pains due for sins already forgiven.

Explanation :—1. By temporal punishment, as distinguished from eternal punishment, is meant punishment which is due for sin, and which is to be undergone either in this world or in the next world, in purgatory. The repentance for sin may be so great as to obtain from God the remission both of the guilt and of all punishment; but often, through the imperfection of our repentance, some punishment remains due for sin after the guilt has been removed.—2. Indulgences are granted on the condition of the performance of certain specified good works; and they cannot be gained by anyone who is not free from the guilt of all grievous sin.—3. The Church, in granting an Indulgence, offers to God, for the remission of the temporal punishment we owe for our sins, the infinite superabundant merits of Our Lord, and also (but only secondarily) the merits of the Blessed Virgin and the Saints.—4. A plenary Indulgence is a remission of the whole of the punishment due for forgiven sins; a partial Indulgence is a remission of some part of that punishment. In the early ages of the Church, “canonical penances,” as they were called, were inflicted for sin: an Indulgence of forty days, for example, represents a remission of as much of the temporal punishment as would have been remitted by means of forty days of such canonical penance.

MARRIAGES.

The solemn celebration of marriages is forbidden from Ash-Wednesday till after Low Sunday, and from the 1st Sunday of Advent till the day after the Epiphany.

According to the Jews, the year 1871 is part of the 5631st and part of the 5632d year since the creation of the world. The Jewish year 5632 will begin Sept. 16.

The year 1288 of the Mahometan era will begin Mar. 23.

The year 1871 is the 2624th from the foundation of Rome.

Registration.

Births. Parents should have their children registered, by personally giving notice to the Registrar of their district, within 42 days after birth, when no fee will be charged. Registration may be effected after the 42 days, and within six months, on payment of 7s. 6d.; after six months no birth can be registered.

Deaths. Notice should be given of deaths in the same manner as of births. This should be done early, as the undertaker must have a certificate to give to the clergyman who reads the funeral service; for, if no certificate be produced, he may refuse to bury the body.

Vaccination.

On Aug. 12, 1867, an Act was passed to consolidate and amend the law relating to vaccination; and by this Act, which has been in force since Jan. 1, 1868, vaccination has been made compulsory. On the registration of birth, the registrar will give notice of vaccination, and the child must be vaccinated within three months, under a penalty of 20s. Any person who shall inoculate, or attempt to inoculate, for the smallpox, will be liable to imprisonment for one month.

Wills. It is important that all who have property to bequeath, or instructions to give for the Catholic education of their children, should make their wills while their health and faculties are unimpaired. By doing so, they will avert the evil consequences which might follow from their dying intestate, or will at least be spared the pain of having in their last illness to give much attention to worldly affairs.—Printed forms and directions for making a Will are often met with; but instead of trusting in them (except in cases of emergency) it is better to obtain the help of an experienced lawyer. It has been said by a lord chancellor that it is "shocking to reflect upon the litigation which has been occasioned by men making their own Wills, or employing incompetent persons to do so."

Executors. The following is the order in which, after a Will has been proved, Executors are required by law to satisfy the claims upon the estate:—funeral and testamentary expenses; debts owing to the Crown; debts, such as poor-rates, which have precedence by special statutes; decrees of Chancery, mortgages, &c.; bills of exchange, &c.; other debts; and lastly legacies.

§ II. EXTRACTS FROM ACTS OF PARLIAMENT

RECENTLY PASSED, AND AFFECTING CATHOLIC ADULTS AND CHILDREN IN WORKHOUSES AND PAUPER SCHOOLS.

I. From the Act 25 and 26 Victoria, cap. 43 (July 17, 1862), entitled "An Act to provide for the Education and Maintenance of Pauper Children, in certain Schools and Institutions."

SECTION 1. Power to Guardians to send poor Children to Schools.

The Guardians of any Parish or Union may send any poor child to any School certified as hereinafter mentioned,* and supported wholly or partially by voluntary subscriptions, the managers of which shall be willing to receive such child, and may pay out of the funds in their possession the expenses incurred in the maintenance, clothing, and education of such child therein, during the time such child shall remain at such School (not exceeding the total sum which would have been charged for the maintenance of such child if relieved in the Workhouse during the same period), and in the conveyance of such child to and from the same, and in the case of death, the expenses of his or her burial.

II. From the Act 29 and 30 Vict., cap. 113 (August 10, 1866), entitled "An Act to amend . . . and to make other Amendments in the Laws relating to the Relief of the Poor."

SECTION 14. Provision for educating Children in the Religion to which they belong.

If the parent, step-parent, nearest adult relative, or next of kin of any child not belonging to the Established Church, relieved in a Workhouse or in a District School, or, in case there should be no parent, step-parent, nearest adult relative, or next of kin, then the god-parent of such child, make application to the said Board on such behalf, the Board may, if they think fit, order that such child shall be sent to some school established for the reception, maintenance, and education of children of the religion to which such child shall be proved to belong, and duly certified by the Poor-law Board under the statute of the 25th and 26th Victoria, chapter 43: and the Guardians of the Union or Parish to which such child shall be chargeable shall, according to the terms of such order, cause the child to be conveyed to such school, and pay the cost and charges of the maintenance, lodging, clothing, and education of the said child therein, and all the provisions of the said statute shall thenceforth apply to the said child.

* Schools certified by the Poor-law Board.

III. From the Act 31 and 32 Vict., cap. 122 (July 31, 1868), entitled "An Act to make further Amendments in the Laws for the Relief of the Poor in England and Wales."

SECTION 16. A separate Creed Register to be kept in every Workhouse and Pauper School.

The officer for the time being acting as the Master of a Workhouse, or as the Master or Superintendent of a District or other Pauper School, shall keep a register of the religious creed of the pauper inmates of such Workhouse or School separate from all other registers, in such form and with such particulars as shall be prescribed by the Poor-law Board by an order under their seal, and shall, as regards every inmate of such Workhouse or School at the date to be fixed by such order, and subsequently upon the admission of every inmate therein, make due inquiry into the religious creed of such inmate, and enter such religious creed in such register.

SECTION 17. How the Religion of Children is to be entered in the Creed Register.

In regard to any child in the Workhouse or School under the age of twelve years, whether either of its parents be in the Workhouse or not, or whether it be an orphan or deserted child, the Master or Superintendent shall enter in such register, as the religious creed of such child, the religious creed of the father, if the Master or Superintendent know or can ascertain the same by reasonable inquiry; or, if the same cannot be so ascertained, the creed of the mother of such child, if the same be known to the said Master or Superintendent, or can be by him in like manner ascertained; and the creed of an illegitimate child under the said age, shall be deemed to be that of its mother, when that can be ascertained.

SECTION 18. The Poor-law Board to decide questions as to correctness of the Register.

If any question shall arise as to the correctness of any entry in such register, the Poor-law Board may, if they think fit, inquire into the circumstances of the case, and determine such question by directing such entry to remain or to be amended, according to their judgment.

SECTION 19. Creed Register to be open to inspection of Minister.

Every Minister of any denomination officiating in the church, chapel, or other registered place of religious worship of such denomination which shall be nearest to any Workhouse or School, or any ratepayer of any parish in the Union, shall be allowed to inspect the register which contains the entry of the religious creed of the inmates at any time of any day, except Sunday, between the hours of ten before noon and four after noon.

SECTION 20. The Minister may, subject to Regulations, visit and instruct Inmates registered as of his Religious Creed.

Such Minister may, in accordance with such regulations as the said Board shall approve of or by their order prescribe, visit and instruct any inmate of such Workhouse or School entered in such register as belonging to the same religious creed as such Minister belongs to, unless such inmate, being above the age of fourteen, and after having been visited at least once by such Minister, shall object to be instructed by him.

SECTION 21. Where no Religious Service is provided in the Workhouse, the Inmate may, subject to regulations, go to his own proper place of Worship.

Every inmate for whom a religious service according to his own creed shall not be provided in the Workhouse shall be permitted, subject to regulations to be approved of or ordered by the Poor-law Board, to attend, at such times as the said Board shall allow, some place of worship of his own denomination within a convenient distance of the said Workhouse, if there be such in the opinion of the Board: provided that the Guardians may, for abuse of such permission previously granted, or on some other special ground, refuse permission to any particular inmate, and shall in such case cause an entry of such refusal and the grounds thereof to be made in their Minutes.

SECTION 22. No Child in the Workhouse or School visited by a Minister of its own Religion shall be required to attend any other Religious Services, unless, being above Twelve Years of Age, he shall desire to do so, and shall be considered by the Poor-law Board competent to judge in the matter.

No child, being an inmate of a Workhouse or such School as aforesaid, who shall be regularly visited by a Minister of his own religious creed for the purpose of religious instruction, shall, if the parents or surviving parent of such child, or in the case of orphans or deserted children, if such Minister make request in writing to that effect, be instructed in any other religious creed, or be required or permitted to attend the service of any other religious creed, than that entered in such register as aforesaid, except any child above the age of twelve years who shall desire to receive instruction in some other creed, or to attend the service of any other religious creed, and who shall be considered by the Poor-law Board to be competent to exercise a judgment upon the subject.

SECTION 23. Interpretation of 25 and 26 Vict., cap. 43, and 29 and 30 Vict., cap. 113, sect. 14, as to Child and Consent of Parents.

The Act of the twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth Victoria, chapter forty-three, and section fourteen of the Poor-law Amendment Act of 1866, shall apply to illegitimate as well as legitimate children; and with regard to illegitimate children the consent of the mother, if she has the care, custody, or possession of the child, shall be sufficient for the purposes of those Acts; and in case of a deserted child or an orphan child on behalf of whom no relative, next of kin, step-parent, or god-parent shall make application, the Poor-law Board may exercise the power conferred upon them by section fourteen of the said Act of 1866, upon being satisfied that there is reasonable ground for their doing so.

SECTION 42.

The Guardians of any Union or Parish may, with the approval of the Poor-law Board, send any poor deaf and dumb or blind child to any School fitted for the reception of such child, though such School shall not have been certified under the provisions of the Act of the twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth years of Victoria, chapter forty-three.

§ II.

THE VATICAN COUNCIL.

The Œcumenical Council of the Vatican, which was announced by the Sovereign Pontiff, June 30, 1867, to the Bishops assembled in Rome for the Centenary of St. Peter, and convoked June 29, 1868, by the Bull 'Œterni Patris,' was solemnly opened in the Vatican Basilica on the 8th day of Dec. 1869. Six days before, Dec. 2, a preliminary meeting had been held, at which the Holy Father addressed the Bishops in a short Allocution; and published the Apostolic Constitution, dated Nov. 27, 1869, prescribing the order to be observed in the proceedings of the Council, and appointing the five Cardinals President and other officers. The Cardinals appointed to preside over the 'general congregations,' in the name of the Holy Father, were De Reisach (for whom was afterwards substituted Cardinal de Angelis), De Luca, Bizzarri, Bilio, and Capalti; Joseph Fessler, Bishop of St. Polten, was appointed Secretary to the Council.

In the Directory for 1869 were given the Bull of Convocation, and the two Apostolic Letters addressed, 1, to such of the Oriental Bishops as were not in communion with the Holy See, and 2, to all Protestants and other non-Catholics; the Directory for 1870 contained a short notice of Ecclesiastical Councils in general, and of the eighteen Councils acknowledged by the Church as Œcumenical. The present notice, of the Œcumenical, or General, Council of the Vatican, will contain, 1, a Diary of the proceedings of the Council from the first to the fourth Public Session; 2, the two Dogmatic Constitutions, 'Dei Filius' and 'Pastor Œternus,' on the Catholic Faith and on the Church of Christ, which were published in the third and fourth Public Sessions; 3, a List of the Fathers who took part in the Council at any time between Dec. 8, 1869, and July 18, 1870.

II. THE CONSTITUTIONS 'DEI FILIUS' AND 'PASTOR ÆTERNUS.'

DOGMATIC CONSTITUTION ON THE CATHOLIC FAITH.

PIUS BISHOP, Servant of the servants of God, with the approval of the Sacred Council, for perpetual remembrance.

Our Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God, and Redeemer of mankind, before returning to His Heavenly Father, promised that He would be with the Church Militant on earth all days, even to the consummation of the world. Therefore He has never ceased to be present with His beloved Spouse, to assist her when teaching, to bless her when at work, and to aid her when in danger. And this His salutary providence, which has been constantly displayed by other innumerable benefits, has been most manifestly proved by the abundant good results which Christendom has derived from Œcumenical Councils, and particularly from that of Trent, although it was held in evil times. For, as a consequence, the sacred doctrines of the faith have been defined more closely, and set forth more fully; errors have been condemned and restrained; ecclesiastical discipline has been restored and more firmly secured; the love of learning and of piety has been promoted among the clergy; colleges have been established to educate youth for the sacred warfare; and the morals of the Christian world have been renewed by the more accurate training of the faithful, and by the more frequent use of the sacraments. Moreover, there has resulted a closer communion of the members with the visible head, and an increase of vigour in the whole mystical body of Christ; the multiplication of religious congregations and of other institutions of Christian piety; and such ardour in extending the kingdom of Christ throughout the world, as constantly endures, even to the sacrifice of life itself.

But while we recall with due thankfulness these and other signal benefits which the divine mercy has bestowed on the Church, especially by the last Œcumenical Council, we cannot restrain our bitter sorrow for the grave evils which are due principally to the fact, that the authority of that sacred Synod has been contemned, or its wise decrees neglected, by many.

No one is ignorant that the heresies proscribed by the Fathers of Trent, by which the divine teaching (magisterium) of the Church was rejected, and all matters regarding religion were surrendered to the judgment of each individual, gradually became dissolved into many sects, which disagreed and contended with one another, until at length not a few lost all faith in Christ. Even the Holy Scriptures, which had previously been declared the sole source and judge of Christian doctrine, began to be held no longer as divine, but to be ranked among the fictions of mythology.

Then there arose, and too widely overspread the world, that doctrine of rationalism, or naturalism, which opposes itself in every way to the Christian religion as a supernatural institution, and works with the utmost zeal in order that, after Christ, our sole Lord and Saviour, has been excluded from the minds of men, and from the life and moral acts of nations, the reign of what they call pure reason or nature may be established. And after forsaking and rejecting the Christian religion, and denying the true God and His Christ, the minds of many have sunk into the abyss of Pantheism, Materialism, and Atheism, until, denying rational nature itself and every sound rule of right, they labour to destroy the deepest foundations of human society.

Unhappily, it has yet farther come to pass that, while this impiety prevailed on every side, many even of the children of the Catholic Church have strayed from the path of true piety; and by the gradual diminution of the truths they held, the Catholic sense has become weakened in them. For, led away by various and strange doctrines, wrongly confusing nature and grace, human science and divine faith, they are found to deprave the true sense of the doctrines which our Holy Mother Church holds and teaches, and to endanger the integrity and the soundness of the faith.

Considering these things, how can the Church fail to be deeply stirred? For, even as God wills all men to be saved, and to arrive at the knowledge of the truth; even as Christ came to save what had perished, and to gather together the children of God who had been dispersed; so the Church, constituted by God the mother and teacher of nations, knows its own office as debtor to all, and is ever ready and watchful to raise the fallen, to support those who are falling, to embrace those who return, to confirm the good and to carry them on to better things. Hence, it can never forbear from witnessing to and proclaiming the truth of God, which heals all things, knowing the words addressed to it: 'My Spirit that is in thee, and My words that I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, from henceforth and for ever' (Isaias lix. 21).

We, therefore, following the footsteps of our predecessors, have never ceased, as becomes our supreme Apostolic office, from teaching and defending Catholic truth, and condemning doctrines of error. And now, with the Bishops of the whole world assembled round us and judging with us, congregated by our authority and in the Holy Spirit in this Œcumenical Council, we, supported by the Word of God written and handed down, as we have received it from the Catholic Church, preserved with sacredness and set forth according to truth,—have determined to profess and declare the salutary teaching of Christ from this Chair of Peter, and in sight of all, proscribing and condemning, by the power given to us of God, all errors contrary thereto.

Chap. I. Of God the Creator of all things.

The Holy Catholic Apostolic Roman Church believes and confesses that there is one true and living God, Creator and Lord of heaven and earth, Almighty, Eternal, Immense, Incomprehensible, Infinite in intelligence, in will, and in all perfection, who, as being one, sole, absolutely simple, and immutable spiritual substance, is to be declared as really and essentially distinct from the world, of supreme beatitude in and from Himself, and ineffably exalted above all things beside Himself which exist or are conceivable.

This one only true God, of His own goodness and almighty power, not for the increase or acquirement of His own happiness, but to manifest His perfection by the blessings which He bestows on creatures, and with absolute freedom of counsel, created out of nothing, from the beginning of time, both the spiritual and the corporeal creature, to wit, the angelical and the mundane; and afterwards the human creature, as partaking, in a sense, of both, consisting of spirit and of body.*

God protects and governs by His Providence all things which

* Fourth Lateran Council, cap. i. de fide Catholica.

He hath made, 'reaching from end to end mightily, and ordering all things sweetly' (Wisdom viii. 1). For 'all things are bare and open to His eyes' (Heb. iv. 13), even those which are yet to be by the free action of creatures.

Chap. II. Of Revelation.

The same Holy Mother Church holds and teaches that God, the beginning and end of all things, may be certainly known by the natural light of human reason, by means of created things; 'for the invisible things of Him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made' (Romans i. 20): but that it pleased His wisdom and bounty to reveal Himself, and the eternal decrees of His will, to mankind by another and supernatural way, as the Apostle says: 'God, having spoken on divers occasions, and many ways, in times past, to the fathers by the prophets; last of all, in these days, hath spoken to us by His Son' (Hebrews i. 1, 2).

It is to be ascribed to this divine revelation, that such truths among things divine as of themselves are not beyond human reason can, even in the present condition of mankind, be known by every one with facility, with firm assurance, and with no admixture of error. This, however, is not the reason why revelation is to be called absolutely necessary; but because God of His infinite goodness has ordained man to a supernatural end, viz. to be a sharer of divine blessings which utterly exceed the intelligence of the human mind: for 'eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither hath it entered into the heart of man, what things God hath prepared for them that love Him' (1 Cor. ii. 9).

Further, this supernatural revelation, according to the universal belief of the Church, declared by the Sacred Synod of Trent, is contained in the written books and unwritten traditions which, received by the Apostles from the mouth of Christ Himself, or by the Apostles themselves, from the dictation of the Holy Spirit, transmitted, as it were, from hand to hand, have come down even unto us.* And these books of the Old and New Testament are to be received as sacred and canonical, in their integrity, with all their parts, as they are enumerated in the decree of the said Council, and are contained in the ancient Latin edition of the Vulgate. These the Church holds to be sacred and canonical: not because, having been carefully composed by mere human industry, they were afterwards approved by her authority; nor merely because they contain revelation, with no admixture of error; but because, having been written by the inspiration of the Holy Ghost, they have God for their author, and have been delivered as such to the Church herself.

And as the things which, in order to curb rebellious spirits, the Holy Synod of Trent decreed for the good of souls concerning the interpretation of Divine Scripture, have been wrongly explained by some, We, renewing the said decree, declare this to be its meaning : that, in matters of faith and morals, appertaining to the building up of Christian doctrine, that is to be held as the true sense of Holy Scripture which our Holy Mother Church hath held and holds, to whom it belongs to judge of the true sense and interpretation of the Holy Scripture ; and therefore that it is permitted to no one to interpret the Sacred Scripture contrary to this sense, or, likewise, contrary to the unanimous consent of the Fathers.

Chap. III. On Faith.

Man being wholly dependent upon God, as upon his Creator and Lord, and created reason being absolutely subject to uncreated truth, we are bound to yield to God, by faith in His revelation, the full obedience of our intelligence and will. And the Catholic Church teaches that this faith, which is the beginning of man's salvation, is a supernatural virtue, whereby, inspired and assisted by the grace of God, we believe that the things which He has revealed are true : not because the intrinsic truth of the things is plainly perceived by the natural light of reason ; but because of the authority of God Himself who reveals them, and who can neither be deceived nor deceive. For faith, as the Apostle testifies, is 'the substance of things hoped for, the conviction of things that appear not' (Hebrews xi. 1).

Nevertheless, in order that the obedience of our faith might be in harmony with reason, God willed that to the interior help of the Holy Spirit there should be joined exterior proofs of His revelation ; to wit, divine facts, and especially miracles and prophecies, which, as they manifestly display the omnipotence and infinite knowledge of God, are most certain proofs of His divine revelation, adapted to the intelligence of all men. Wherefore, both Moses and the Prophets, and most especially Christ our Lord Himself, showed forth many and most evident miracles and prophecies ; and of the Apostles we read : 'But they going forth preached everywhere, the Lord working withal, and confirming the word with signs that followed' (Mark xvi. 20). And again it is written : 'We have the more firm prophetic word, whereunto you do well to attend, as to a light shining in a dark place' (2 St. Peter i. 19).

But though the assent of faith is by no means a blind action of the mind, still no man can assent to the Gospel teaching, as is necessary to obtain salvation, without the illumination and inspiration of the Holy Spirit, who gives to all men sweetness in assenting to and believing in the truth.* Wherefore faith itself, even when it does not work by charity, is in itself a gift of God, and the act of faith is a work appertaining to salvation, by which man yields voluntary obedience to God Himself, by assenting to and coöperating with His grace, which he is able to resist.

Further, all those things are to be believed with divine and Catholic faith which are contained in the Word of God, written or handed down, and which the Church, either by a solemn judgment or by her ordinary and universal teaching (magisterium), proposes for belief as having been divinely revealed.

And since without faith it is impossible to please God, and to attain to the fellowship of His children, therefore without faith no one has ever attained justification; nor will any one obtain eternal life, unless he shall have persevered in faith unto the end. And, that we may be able to satisfy the obligation of embracing the true faith and of constantly persevering in it, God has instituted the Church through His only-begotten Son, and has bestowed on it manifest notes of that institution, that it may be recognised by all men as the guardian and teacher of the revealed Word; for to the Catholic Church alone belong all those many and admirable tokens which have been divinely established for the evident credibility of the Christian Faith. Nay, more, the Church by itself, by reason of its marvellous extension, its eminent holiness, and its inexhaustible fruitfulness in every good thing, its Catholic unity and its invincible stability, is a great and perpetual motive of credibility, and an irrefutable witness of its own divine mission.

And thus, like a standard set up unto the nations (Isaias xi. 12), it both invites to itself those who do not yet believe, and assures its children that the faith which they profess rests on the most firm foundation. And its testimony is efficaciously supported by a power from on high. For our most merciful Lord gives His grace to stir up and to aid those who are astray, that they may come to a knowledge of the truth; and to those whom He has brought out of darkness into His own admirable light, He gives His grace to strengthen them to persevere in that light, deserting none who desert not Him. Therefore there is no parity between the condition of those who have adhered to the Catholic truth by the heavenly gift of faith, and of those who, led by human opinions, follow a false religion; for those who have received the faith under the teaching (magisterio) of the Church can never have any just cause for changing or doubting that faith. Therefore, giving thanks to God the Father who has made us worthy to be partakers of the lot of the Saints in light, let us not neglect so great salvation, but with our eyes fixed on Jesus, the author and finisher of our Faith, let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering (Hebrews xii. 2 and x. 23).

Chap. IV. Of Faith and Reason.

The Catholic Church with one consent has also ever held and does hold that there is a twofold order of knowledge, distinct both in principle and in object: in principle, because our knowledge in the one is by natural reason, and in the other by divine faith; in object, because, besides those things to which natural reason can attain, there are proposed to our belief mysteries hidden in God, which, unless divinely revealed, cannot be known. Wherefore the Apostle, who testifies that God is known by the gentiles through created things, still, when discoursing of the grace and truth which come by Jesus Christ (John i. 17), says : 'We speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, a wisdom which is hidden, which God ordained before the world unto our glory ; which none of the princes of this world knew ; . . . but to us God hath revealed them by His Spirit. For the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God' (1. Cor. ii. 7-9). And the only-begotten Son Himself gives thanks to the Father, because He has hid these things from the wise and prudent, and has revealed them to little ones (Matt. xi. 25).

Reason, indeed, enlightened by faith, when it seeks earnestly, piously, and calmly, attains by a gift from God some, and that a very fruitful, understanding of mysteries ; partly from the analogy of those things which it naturally knows, partly from the relations which the mysteries bear to one another and to the last end of man : but reason never becomes capable of apprehending mysteries as it does those truths which constitute its proper object. For the divine mysteries by their own nature so far transcend the created intelligence that, even when delivered by revelation and received by faith, they remain covered with the veil of faith itself, and shrouded in a certain degree of darkness, so long as we are pilgrims in this mortal life, not yet with God ; 'for we walk by faith and not by sight' (2 Cor. v. 7).

But although faith is above reason, there can never be any real discrepancy between faith and reason ; since the same God who reveals mysteries and infuses faith has bestowed the light of reason on the human mind, and God cannot deny Himself, nor can truth ever contradict truth. The false appearance of such a contradiction is mainly due, either to the dogmas of faith not having been understood and expounded according to the mind of the Church, or to the inventions of opinion having been taken for the verdicts of reason. We define, therefore, that every assertion contrary to a truth of enlightened faith is utterly false.* Further, the Church, which, together with the Apostolic office of teaching, has received a charge to guard the deposit of faith, derives from God the right and the duty of proscribing false science, lest any should be deceived by philosophy and vain fallacy (Coloss. ii. 8). Therefore all faithful Christians are not only forbidden to defend, as legitimate conclusions of science, such opinions as are known to be contrary to the doctrines of faith, especially if they have been condemned by the Church, but are altogether bound to account them as errors which put on the fallacious appearance of truth.

And not only can faith and reason never be opposed to one another, but they are of mutual aid one to the other : for right reason demonstrates the foundations of faith, and, enlightened by its light, cultivates the science of things divine ; while faith frees and guards reason from errors, and furnishes it with manifold knowledge. So far, therefore, is the Church from opposing the cultivation of human arts and sciences, that it in many ways helps and promotes it. For the Church neither ignores nor despises the benefits to human life which result from the arts and sciences, but confesses that, as they came from God, the Lord of all science, so, if they be rightly used, they lead to God by the help of His grace. Nor does the Church forbid that each of these sciences in its sphere should make use of its own principles and its own method; but, while recognising this just liberty, it stands watchfully on guard, lest sciences, setting themselves against the divine teaching, or transgressing their own limits, should invade and disturb the domain of faith.

For the doctrine of faith which God hath revealed has not been proposed, like a philosophical invention, to be perfected by human ingenuity; but has been delivered as a divine deposit to the Spouse of Christ, to be faithfully kept and infallibly declared. Hence also, that meaning of the sacred dogmas is perpetually to be retained which our Holy Mother the Church has once declared; nor is that meaning ever to be departed from, under the pretence or pretext of a deeper comprehension of them. Let, then, the intelligence, science, and wisdom of each and all, of individuals and of the whole Church, in all ages and all times, increase and flourish in abundance and vigour; but simply in its own proper kind, that is to say, in one and the same doctrine, one and the same sense, one and the same judgment (Vincent of Lerins, Common. n. 28).

3. If any one shall say that the substance and essence of God and of all things is one and the same; let him be anathema.

4. If any one shall say that finite things, both corporeal and spiritual, or at least spiritual, have emanated from the divine substance; or that the divine essence by the manifestation and evolution of itself becomes all things; or, lastly, that God is universal or indefinite being, which by determining itself constitutes the universality of things, distinct according to kinds (genera), species, and individuals; let him be anathema.

5. If any one confess not that the world, and all things which are contained in it, both spiritual and material, have been, in their whole substance, produced by God out of nothing; or shall say that God created, not by His will, free from all necessity, but by a necessity equal to the necessity whereby He loves Himself; or shall deny that the world was made for the glory of God; let him be anathema.

II. Of Revelation.

1. If any one shall say that the One true God, our Creator and Lord, cannot be certainly known by the natural light of human reason through created things ; let him be anathema.

2. If any one shall say that it is impossible, or inexpedient, that man should be taught by divine revelation concerning God and the worship to be paid to Him ; let him be anathema.

III. Of Faith.

1. If any one shall say that human reason is so independent that faith cannot be enjoined upon it by God ; let him be anathema.

2. If any one shall say that divine faith is not distinguished from natural knowledge of God and of moral truths, and therefore that it is not requisite for divine faith that revealed truth be believed because of the authority of God who reveals it ; let him be anathema.

3. If any one shall say that divine revelation cannot be made credible by outward signs, and therefore that men ought to be moved to faith solely by the internal experience of each, or by private inspiration ; let him be anathema.

4. If any one shall say that miracles are impossible, and therefore that all the accounts regarding them, even those contained in Holy Scripture, are to be dismissed as fabulous or mythical ; or that miracles can never be known with certainty, and that the divine origin of Christianity is not rightly proved by them ; let him be anathema.

5. If any one shall say that the assent of Christian faith is not a free act, but necessarily produced by the arguments of human reason ; or that the grace of God is necessary for that living faith only which worketh by charity ; let him be anathema.

6. If any one shall say that the condition of the faithful, and of those who have not yet attained to the only true faith, is on a par, so that Catholics may have just cause for doubting, with suspended assent, the faith which they have already received under the teaching (magisterio) of the Church, until they shall have obtained a scientific demonstration of the credibility and truth of their faith ; let him be anathema.

IV. Of Faith and Reason.

1. If any one shall say that in divine revelation there are no mysteries, truly and properly so called, but that all the doctrines of faith can be understood and demonstrated from natural principles by properly cultivated reason ; let him be anathema.

2. If any one shall say that human sciences are to be so freely treated, that their assertions, although opposed to revealed doctrine, can be held as true, and cannot be condemned by the Church ; let him be anathema.

3. If any one shall assert it to be possible that sometimes, according to the progress of science, a sense is to be given to doctrines propounded by the Church different from that which the Church has understood and understands ; let him be anathema.

Therefore We, fulfilling the duty of our supreme pastoral office, entreat by the mercies of Jesus Christ, and, by the authority of the same our God and Saviour, We command, all the faithful of Christ, and especially those who are set over others or are charged with the office of instruction, that they earnestly and diligently apply themselves to ward off and eliminate these errors from Holy Church, and to spread the light of pure faith.

And since it is not sufficient to shun heretical pravity, unless those errors also be diligently avoided which more or less nearly approach it, We admonish all men of the further duty of observing the Constitutions and Decrees by which such erroneous opinions as are not here expressly enumerated have been proscribed and condemned by this Holy See.

FIRST DOGMATIC CONSTITUTION ON THE CHURCH OF CHRIST.

PIUS BISHOP, Servant of the servants of God, with the approval of the Sacred Council, for perpetual remembrance.

The Eternal Pastor and Bishop of our souls, in order to continue for all time the life-giving work of His Redemption, determined to build up the Holy Church, wherein, as in the House of the living God, all who believe might be united in the bond of one faith and one charity. Wherefore, before He entered into His glory, He prayed unto the Father, not for the Apostles only, but for those also who through their preaching should come to believe in Him, that all might be one, even as He the Son and the Father are one (St. John xvii. 21). As then He sent the Apostles whom He had chosen to Himself from the world, as He Himself had been sent by the Father ; so He willed that there should ever be pastors and teachers in His Church to the end of the world. And in order that the Episcopate also might be one and undivided, and that by means of a closely united priesthood the multitude of the faithful might be kept secure in the oneness of faith and communion, He set Blessed Peter over the rest of the Apostles, and fixed in him the abiding principle of this two-fold unity and its visible foundation, in the strength of which the everlasting temple should arise, and the Church in the firmness of that faith should lift her majestic front to heaven.* And seeing that the gates of hell with daily increase of hatred are gathering their strength on every side to upheave the foundation laid by God's own hand, and so, if that might be, to overthrow the Church : We, therefore, for the preservation, safe keeping, and increase of the Catholic flock, with the approval of the Sacred Council, do judge it to be necessary to propose to the belief and acceptance of all the faithful, in accordance with the ancient and constant faith of the universal Church, the doctrine touching the institution, perpetuity, and nature of the sacred Apostolic Primacy, in which is found the strength and solidity of the entire Church ; and at the same time to proscribe and condemn the contrary errors, so hurtful to the flock of Christ.

Chap. I. Of the Institution of the Apostolic Primacy in Blessed Peter.

We therefore teach and declare that, according to the testimony of the Gospel, the primacy of jurisdiction over the universal Church of God was immediately and directly promised and given to Blessed Peter the Apostle by Christ the Lord. For it was to Simon alone, to whom He had already said, 'Thou shalt be called Cephas' (St. John i. 42), that the Lord, after the confession made by him, saying, 'Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God,' addressed these solemn words : 'Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-Jona, because flesh and blood have not revealed it to thee, but My Father who is in heaven. And I say to thee that thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build My Church ; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. And I will give to thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven. And whatsoever thou shalt bind upon earth, it shall be bound also in heaven ; and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth, it shall be loosed in heaven' (St. Matthew xvi. 16-19). And it was upon Simon alone that Jesus after His resurrection bestowed the jurisdiction of Chief Pastor and Ruler over all His fold in the words : 'Feed My lambs ; feed My sheep' (St. John xxi. 15-17). At open variance with this clear doctrine of Holy Scripture, as it has been ever understood by the Catholic Church, are the perverse opinions of those who, while they distort the form of government established by Christ the Lord in His Church, deny that Peter in his single person, preferably to all the other Apostles, whether taken separately or together, was endowed by Christ with a true and proper primacy of jurisdiction; or of those who assert that the same primacy was not bestowed immediately and directly upon Blessed Peter himself, but upon the Church, and through the Church on Peter as her minister.

If any one, therefore, shall say that Blessed Peter the Apostle was not appointed the Prince of all the Apostles and the visible Head of the whole Church Militant; or that the same directly and immediately received from the same our Lord Jesus Christ a primacy of honour only, and not of true and proper jurisdiction; let him be anathema.

Chap. II. On the Perpetuity of the Primacy of Blessed Peter in the Roman Pontiffs.

That which the Prince of Shepherds and great Shepherd of the sheep, Jesus Christ our Lord, established in the person of the Blessed Apostle Peter, to secure the perpetual welfare and lasting good of the Church, must, by the same institution, necessarily remain unceasingly in the Church; which, being founded upon the Rock, will stand firm to the end of the world. For none can doubt, and it is known to all ages, that the holy and Blessed Peter, the Prince and Chief of the Apostles, the pillar of the faith and foundation of the Catholic Church, received the keys of the kingdom from our Lord Jesus Christ, the Saviour and Redeemer of mankind, and lives, presides, and judges, to this day and always, in his successors the Bishops of the Holy See of Rome, which was founded by him, and consecrated by his blood.* Whence, whosoever succeeds to Peter in this See does by the institution of Christ Himself obtain the Primacy of Peter over the whole Church. The disposition made by Incarnate Truth (dispositio veritatis) therefore remains, and Blessed Peter, abiding in the rock strength which he received (in acceptâ fortitudine petrâ perseverans), has not abandoned the direction of the Church.† Wherefore it has at all times been necessary that every particular Church—that is to say, the faithful throughout the world—should come to the Church of Rome, on account of the greater principedom it has received; so that in this See, whence the rights of venerable communion spread to all, they might, as members joined together in their head, grow closely into one body.‡

If, then, one shall say that it is not by the institution of Christ the Lord, or by divine right, that Blessed Peter has a perpetual line of successors in the primacy over the universal Church; or that the Roman Pontiff is not the successor of Blessed Peter in this primacy; let him be anathema.

Chap. III. On the Power and Nature of the Primacy of the Roman Pontiff.

Wherefore, resting on plain testimonies of the Sacred Writings, and adhering to the plain and express decrees both of our predecessors the Roman Pontiffs, and of the General Councils, We renew the definition of the Œcumenical Council of Florence, by which all the faithful of Christ must believe that the Holy Apostolic See and the Roman Pontiff possesses the primacy over the whole world; and that the Roman Pontiff is the successor of Blessed Peter, Prince of the Apostles, and is true Vicar of Christ, and Head of the whole Church, and Father and Teacher of all Christians; and that full power was given to him in Blessed Peter, by Jesus Christ our Lord, to rule, feed, and govern the Universal Church: as is also contained in the Acts of the Œcumenical Councils and in the Sacred Canons.

Hence we teach and declare, that by the appointment of our Lord the Roman Church possesses a sovereignty of ordinary power over all other Churches, and that this power of jurisdiction of the Roman Pontiff, which is truly episcopal, is immediate; to which all, of whatever rite and dignity, both pastors and faithful, both individually and collectively, are bound, by their duty of hierarchical subordination and true obedience, to submit, not only in matters which belong to faith and morals, but also in those that appertain to the discipline and government of the Church throughout the world; so that the Church of Christ may be one flock under one supreme Pastor, through the preservation of unity, both of communion and of profession of the same faith, with the Roman Pontiff. This is the teaching of Catholic truth, from which no one can deviate without loss of faith and of salvation.

But so far is this power of the Supreme Pontiff from being any prejudice to that ordinary and immediate power of episcopal jurisdiction, by which Bishops, who have been set by the Holy Ghost to succeed and hold the place of the Apostles,* feed and govern each his own flock, as true pastors, that this same power is really asserted, strengthened, and protected by the supreme and universal Pastor; in accordance with the words of St. Gregory the Great: 'My honour is the honour of the whole Church. My honour is the firm strength of my brethren. Then am I truly honoured, when the honour due to each and all is not withheld.†'

Further, from this supreme power possessed by the Roman Pontiff of governing the universal Church, it follows that, in the exercise of this office, he has the right of free communication with the pastors of the whole Church, and with their flocks, that they may be taught and ruled by him in the way of salvation. Wherefore We condemn and reprobate the opinions of those who hold that the communication between the supreme Head and the pastors and their flocks can lawfully be impeded; or who make this communication subject to the will of the secular power, so as to maintain that whatever is done by the Apostolic See, or by its authority, for the government of the Church, cannot have force or value unless it be confirmed by the assent of the secular power. And since, by the divine right of Apostolic primacy, the Roman Pontiff is placed over the universal Church, We further teach and declare that he is the supreme judge of the faithful,* and that in all causes the decision of which belongs to the Church recourse may be had to his tribunal;† but that none may reopen the judgment of the Apostolic See, than whose authority there is no greater, nor can any lawfully review its judgment.‡ Wherefore they err from the right path of truth who assert that it is lawful to appeal from the judgments of the Roman Pontiffs to an Œcumenical Council, as to an authority higher than that of the Roman Pontiff.

If then any shall say that the Roman Pontiff has the office merely of inspection or direction, and not full and supreme power of jurisdiction over the universal Church, not only in things which belong to faith and morals, but also in those which relate to the discipline and government of the Church spread throughout the world; or assert that he possesses merely the principal part, and not all the fulness of this supreme power; or that this power which he enjoys is not ordinary and immediate, both over each and all the Churches and over each and all the pastors and the faithful; let him be anathema.

Chap. IV. Concerning the Infallible Teaching of the Roman Pontiff.

Moreover, that the supreme power of teaching (magisterii) is also included in the Apostolic primacy, which the Roman Pontiff, as the successor of Peter, Prince of the Apostles, possesses over the whole Church, this Holy See has always held, the perpetual practice of the Church confirms, and Œcumenical Councils also have declared, especially those in which the East with the West met in the union of faith and charity. For the Fathers of the Fourth Council of Constantinople, following in the footsteps of their predecessors, gave forth this solemn profession: The first condition of salvation is to keep the rule of the true faith. And because the sentence of our Lord Jesus Christ cannot be passed by, who said, 'Thou art Peter, and upon this Rock I will build My Church' (St. Matthew xvi. 18), these things which have been said are proved by events, because in the Apostolic See the Catholic religion has always been kept undefiled, and her well-known doctrine has been kept holy. Desiring, therefore, not to be in the least degree separated from the faith and doctrine of this See, we hope that we may deserve to be in the one communion, which the Apostolic See preaches, in which is the entire and true solidity of the Christian religion.* And, with the approval of the Second Council of Lyons, the Greeks professed: That the Holy Roman Church enjoys supreme and full Primacy and principedom over the whole Catholic Church, which it truly and humbly acknowledges that it has received with the plenitude of power from our Lord Himself in the person of Blessed Peter, Prince or Head of the Apostles, whose successor the Roman Pontiff is; and as the Apostolic See is bound before all others to defend the truth of faith, so also, if any questions regarding faith shall arise, they must be defined by its judgment.† Finally, the Council of Florence defined:‡ That the Roman Pontiff is the true Vicar of Christ, and the Head of the whole Church, and the Father and Teacher of all Christians; and that to him in Blessed Peter was delivered by our Lord Jesus Christ the full power of feeding, ruling, and governing the whole Church (John xxi. 15-17).

To satisfy this pastoral duty, our predecessors ever made unwearied efforts that the salutary doctrine of Christ might be propagated among all the nations of the earth, and with equal care watched that it might be preserved genuine and pure where it had been received. Therefore the Bishops of the whole world, now singly, now assembled in synod, following the long-established custom of Churches§ and the form of the ancient rule,|| sent word to this Apostolic See of those dangers especially which sprang up in matters of faith, that there the losses of faith might be most effectually repaired where the faith cannot fail.¶ And the Roman Pontiffs, according to the exigences of times and circumstances, sometimes assembling Œcumenical Councils, or asking for the mind of the Church scattered throughout the world, sometimes by particular Synods, sometimes using other helps which Divine Providence supplied, defined as to be held those things which with the help of God they had recognised as conformable with the Sacred Scriptures and Apostolic Traditions. For the Holy Spirit was not promised to the successors of Peter, that by His revelation they might make known new doctrine, but that by His assistance they might inviolably keep and faithfully expound the revelation or deposit of faith delivered through the Apostles. And indeed all the venerable Fathers have embraced and the holy orthodox Doctors have venerated and followed their Apostolic doctrine; knowing most fully that this See of Saint Peter remains ever free from all blemish of error, according to the divine promise of the Lord our Saviour made to the Prince of His disciples: 'I have prayed for thee that thy faith fail not, and when thou art converted, confirm thy brethren' (St. Luke xxii. 32).*

This gift, then, of truth and never-failing faith was conferred by Heaven upon Peter and his successors in this Chair, that they might perform their high office for the salvation of all; that the whole flock of Christ, kept away by them from the poisonous food of error, might be nourished with the pasture of heavenly doctrine; that, the occasion of schism being removed, the whole Church might be kept one, and, resting on its foundation, might stand firm against the gates of hell.

But since in this very age, in which the salutary efficacy of the Apostolic office is most of all required, not a few are found who take away from its authority, we judge it altogether necessary solemnly to assert the prerogative which the only-begotten Son of God vouchsafed to join with the supreme pastoral office.

Therefore, faithfully adhering to the tradition received from the beginning of the Christian faith, for the glory of God our Saviour, the exaltation of the Catholic Religion, and the salvation of Christian people, with the approval of the Sacred Council, We teach and define that it is a dogma divinely revealed: That the Roman Pontiff, when he speaks ex cathedrâ, that is, when in discharge of the office of Pastor and Teacher of all Christians, by virtue of his supreme Apostolic authority he defines a doctrine regarding faith or morals to be held by the universal Church, is, by the divine assistance promised to him in Blessed Peter, possessed of that infallibility with which the divine Redeemer willed that His Church should be endowed in defining doctrine regarding faith or morals; and that therefore such definitions of the Roman Pontiff are of themselves, and not from the consent of the Church, irreformable.†

But if any one, which may God avert! presume to contradict this our Definition; let him be anathema.

VI. Martyrs in England.

The following is an analysis of Bishop Challoner's Missionary Priests. It includes all the martyrs, both of the clergy and laity, who, in the time of religious persecution, were publicly executed in England for the Catholic faith. The number of those who thus suffered death is 260; and others died in prison. The greatest number of the martyrdoms took place at Tyburn, where, at 51 executions, 91 martyrs suffered. At York there were 35 executions, and 50 martyrs.

Dioceses.	Places.	Executions.	Priests.	Laity.	Total Martyrs.
Westminster	15	73	88	31	119
Beverley	2	36	33	18	51
Birmingham	5	5	9	3	12
Clifton	1	2	1	1	2

Nottingham	3	4	5	2	7

Shrewsbury	4	4	3	1	4
Southwark	7	8	11	5	16
Locality doubtful	3	3	2	1	3
	55	169	184	76	260

Amongst the 184 priests is included Oliver Plunket, Archbishop of Armagh; and a Benedictine lay brother is included amongst the laity.

The clergy who suffered death in England were, the Archbishop of Armagh, and 183 priests, namely, 144 seculars, 24 Jesuits, 8 Benedictines, and 7 Franciscans. Of the 91 who suffered at Tyburn, 22 were of the laity and 69 of the clergy: the clergy were, the Archbishop, 42 seculars, 17 Jesuits, 6 Benedictines, and 3 Franciscans. The 50 martyrs of York were, of the laity 17, and 33 priests,—namely, 32 Seculars, and 1 Jesuit.

VII. ASSOCIATION FOR THE CELEBRATION OF MASSES FOR THE DECEASED SECULAR CLERGY.

England is divided into two parts, of which the Northern Division contains five, and the Southern eight Dioceses. In each Diocese there is a Registrar, appointed to keep a list of the Clergy of his Diocese belonging to the Association, and to send out notices of deaths.

The Bishops, whether Secular or Regular, and the Secular Priests who inscribe their names, either personally or by proxy, upon the list kept by the Registrar of their Diocese, become Members of the Association; and they thereby bind themselves for life to celebrate one Mass for every deceased Member belonging to the Division, whether Northern or Southern, to which they themselves belong.

Priests, who for any reason are permanently transferred from one Division to another, are required to transfer their names to the list of that Division. Those who cease to belong to the jurisdiction of the Bishops of England, lose the benefit of membership. But Military Chaplains retain their rights even if they die out of the Division to which they belong; and so do Priests of the English Colleges abroad and those who are attached to the Papal Court, provided that they have inscribed their names on the Register of their respective Dioceses.

The Masses of the Association are privileged.

Important Notice.—By a Rescript of April 13, 1869, His Holiness has declared that no Priest can become a Member of the Association after the lapse of the first three years from the time of his entrance into his Diocese.

NOTICE.

The Second Synod of Oscott lays down certain rules for deciding when gifts made to priests are intended for their own private use, and when for the benefit of their mission; but the same rules are not clearly applicable to charitable institutions. In accordance therefore with the principles laid down in the Synod for the ease of conscience, all donations, when made to any one in charge of such establishment, shall be considered to be intended for the support and maintenance of such institution, or for the payment of debt, if there be any, unless the donor distinctly declares his donation to be meant for the personal use of those in charge: and whoever receives donations intended for the establishment, must without delay pay over such benefactions to the committee or priest in charge, and, in default of such managers, to the Treasurer of the Diocese, the Very Rev. James Canon Fisher, Burscough Hall, Ormskirk, that they may be applied according to the donor's intent.

1. Of the 19 Bishops, 4 are retired. The number 207, given for the Clergy of Scotland, does not include Priests who are retired, or who are at present unattached.

2. The numbers given for the Churches, Chapels and Stations, do not include private chapels: in former years many private chapels were included in the Summary. Of the Stations (or places which have no resident priest) many, especially in Scotland, are attended from a distance, and have not a weekly service.

3. The Communities, as above enumerated, do not all consist of regulars or religious; and, on the other hand, there are many regular clergy, who, not living in community, are engaged in missionary work.

METROPOLITAN CATHEDRAL

WESTMINSTER.

Cost of Site :

First portion purchased	£16,500
Second ditto	20,000
	<hr/> £36,500

Already paid for Site :

Towards first purchase	£10,000
Towards second ditto	14,000
	<hr/> £24,000

Balance* to be paid, besides interest	£12,500

1. In addition to the sums already promised, a further sum of about 8,000*l.* would be required, to complete within 4 years the payment of 36,500*l.* which the site has cost. Until the completion of this payment it will be necessary to provide also the interest upon the debt: viz. 3 per cent upon the balance due on the first purchase, and 5 per cent upon the balance due on the second purchase.

2. It is probable that money will from time to time be contributed in the form of Bequests and of unexpected Donations; and some persons may be charitably disposed to insure their lives for the benefit of the Fund. The Fund, however, must chiefly rely upon Donations and Annual Subscriptions definitely promised.

3. By such Donations and Annual Subscriptions, if made by many persons, a large and steady income would be raised, without imposing upon any one a disproportionate burden.

4. The Foundation Stone will be laid when such a sum as will insure the uninterrupted continuance of the work shall have been accumulated.

The Account of the "Catholic Metropolitan Cathedral Fund" stands at the London and Westminster Bank, Marylebone Branch, Stratford-place, London, W.

Donations and Annual Subscriptions, or promises of the same, for the Site or for Building, may be sent to the Archbishop or to the Secretary (Rev. W. A. Johnson), 8 York-place, London, W.

* According to the agreement of sale, the payment of the first portion purchased must be completed by the autumn of 1873, and that of the second portion by November 1880.

INSTITUTIONS, SOCIETIES, ETC.

CONFRATERNITY OF ST. PETER.

Patron—His Grace the Archbishop of Westminster.

This Confraternity was established in 1859, under the title of the St. Peter's Pence Association. It had for its object from the commencement, to restore to the Holy See the old Saxon offering of Peter's Pence, and to unite all loyal Catholics in protecting the independence of the Sovereign Pontiff.

The Confraternity has organised Conferences in most of the Dioceses throughout England; and it took the initiative in the restoration of the ancient offering of Peter's Pence in Europe, India, and America.

The Peter's Pence movement, in one form or another, has now become almost universal amongst Catholics; but the necessity for a centre of action in the conduct of so important a work, renders it very desirable that all Catholics who have it in their power should coöperate with the Confraternity of St. Peter, to which the Holy Father has granted numerous Indulgences, and of which he has said that its progress is dear to his heart.

The Rules are distributed gratuitously, and may be had upon application to the Secretary,

CHARLES JOHN BRETT, Esq.,

1 Clarendon-road, Kensington Park, W.,

to whom all communications relating to the working of the Confraternity should be addressed.

CATHOLIC POOR-SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

Established in 1847, by the Bishops of England and Wales, to promote the Education of the Catholic Poor. Indulged by the Holy See.

Chairman—The Lord Howard of Glossop.

Secretary and Treasurer—Thomas William Allies, Esq.

Offices of Committee—22 Portman-street, London, W.

Form of Bequest to the Catholic Poor-School Committee.

I give and bequeath to _____, or other the Chairman for the time being of the Catholic Poor-School Committee, whose receipt shall be a good discharge to my executors, the sum of £ _____, to be paid exclusively out of such parts of my personal estate as I can by law charge with the payment thereof; and to be applied under the direction, and to promote the charitable objects of the said Committee, or such of them as are not contrary to the true intent and meaning of the statute 9 George II. c. 36.

* It is requested that all remittances may be made to the Secretary, either by cheques payable on a London Banker, or by Post-office Orders drawn to his name at the Charing-cross Post-office; but not by stamps. Applicants for grants must apply to the Secretary for the requisite forms.*

The Archbishop of Westminster, speaking in the name of the Bishops.

"MY DEAR MR. LANGDALE,

"8 York-place, May 2, 1867.

"In the name of the Bishops I beg to assure you and the Poor-School Committee that we feel a debt of gratitude to you for your long-sustained and efficient labours in promoting the education of the Catholic children of England.

"The Bishops have a deep sense of the usefulness and value of the Poor-School Committee, and of its office as the head and centre of our whole system of education. The suggestions made by the Bishops in the Conferences of yesterday and the day before were intended to confirm and to perpetuate the Poor-School Committee in this view of its office.

"In conclusion, the Bishops desire to convey to you their intention to render the Poor-School Committee all the aid in their power to fulfil its office towards our system of education.

"Wishing for you and for the members of the Committee all blessings, believe me, my dear Mr. Langdale, your affectionate servant in Christ, ✠ HENRY E., Archbishop of Westminster."

N.B. The last report will be forwarded by the secretary to any applicant who remits to him seven postage-stamps, and to any Catholic teacher who gives his address with one stamp.

WESTMINSTER DIOCESAN EDUCATION FUND.

This Fund was established in June 1866, by his Grace the Archbishop, to promote the religious and secular education of the Catholic poor children in the diocese of Westminster. The Fund is applicable to the erection and maintenance of

1. Certified reformatory, industrial, and poor-law schools ;
2. Non-certified orphanages ;
3. Parochial day-schools ;
4. and to giving assistance in individual cases of orphans and destitute children.

In order to attain fully the objects of the Fund, a large permanent income is required. The sums already received from the generosity of the faithful have only been sufficient to start the good work ; and a large part of them being promised only for three or five years, an effort is necessary to increase the number of contributors, so as to provide against a future diminution of income. It is therefore hoped that all who have at heart the salvation of the thousands of poor Catholic children in London, and especially of those who, through the neglect or the loss of parents, are exposed to more than ordinary spiritual dangers, will, either by annual subscriptions or by donations, coöperate to the utmost of their power in maintaining and extending the annual income of the Fund.

Subscriptions and donations may be sent to his Grace the Archbishop ; or to the Secretary of the Fund, Rev. Thomas Seddon, 8 York-place, Portman-square, London, W.

The object of this association is to assist, by prayers and alms, the Catholic missionaries in foreign nations.

The prayers of the association are, one "Our Father" and one "Hail Mary" each day. It will suffice to say, with this intention, the Pater and Ave of the morning or evening prayers, and to add the following invocation, "St. Francis Xavier, pray for us."

The alms is one halfpenny a week. One member is charged to receive the subscriptions of ten, the amount of which he hands over to another member, who receives ten similar contributions, i.e. a hundred subscriptions. Donations made by persons not members, or by members over and above the ordinary subscription, will be gratefully received.

Two committees, one established at Paris and the other at Lyons, distribute the alms to the different missions. A number of "The Annals of the Propagation of the Faith" appears, translated from the French into English, every two months, beginning with January; and a copy is sent gratis to every ten members subscribing one halfpenny a week. The English "Annals" are published for the institution by Messrs. Burns, Oates, and Co., 17 Portman-street, W.; and sold by all booksellers, price sixpence per number.

SECULAR CLERGY NEW FUND.

Administrators—Very Rev. Canon Bamber, Rev. E. Tayler, and Rev. M. O'Halloran.

Secretary and Treasurer—Rev. P. O'Callaghan.

This Institution possesses the strongest claims upon the charity of the Catholic public. It provides a certain amount of support for the Clergy of the dioceses of Westminster and Southwark, when they are rendered incapable of performing their sacred duties through old age or infirmity.

The Administrators earnestly hope that many pious Catholics will become benefactors to this excellent Charity, and thus provide that their devoted priests, after they have spent their health in labouring for the flock of Christ, shall not be exposed to poverty and want in time of sickness or old age.

Two Masses are offered each year by every member of this Institution for its living and deceased benefactors.

Form of Bequest to this Charity.

I, A. B., do bequeath to the Rev. Patrick O'Callaghan, of 54 Lincoln's-inn-fields, London, or to the Treasurer for the time being of the Institution called the Secular Clergy New Fund, the sum of £ , for the benefit of that Institution, to be paid out of such part of my personal estate as I can lawfully charge with the payment of legacies to charitable uses.

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL,

Established in France in 1833, and in England in 1844.

Branches or Conferences of the Society are now established in many of the large towns in England, including London, Liverpool, Manchester, Birmingham, Bristol, Bath, Sheffield, Preston, and sixteen Catholic parishes in London. The chief object of the society is visiting poor families at their own homes, by unpaid visitors (the active members of the society). Besides the visitation of the poor, the society supports an orphanage for eighty boys, at the lowest pension of any orphanage in London. The smallest donation in aid of this work, or for any of the Conferences of the society in London, will be most thankfully received by the General President, George Blount, 28 Old Burlington-street; or by A. Dunn, 158 Belsize-road, St. John's-wood.

Books of the rules, 2*d.* per copy, and every information connected with the society, may be obtained at the offices, 31 Queen-square, Bloomsbury, where meetings of any Catholic society, or for any Catholic purpose, may be held, on very moderate terms. For same, apply to George Blount, Esq., 28 Old Burlington-street, London, W.

100,000 CHILDREN in LONDON without EDUCATION or CONTROL, and in TRAINING for CRIME and VICE of every kind.

The Committee of ST. VINCENT'S HOME for DESTITUTE BOYS most earnestly APPEAL to the Catholic public to assist them in their work of receiving some of these poor boys, who are annually being lost to religion and to society. 12*l.* will insure to one of them a year's religious training and education. The smallest donations will be most thankfully received by G. Blount, Esq., 28 Old Burlington-street, W.; or by A. J. Dunn, Esq., 158 Belsize-road, N.W.

Donations are earnestly requested in support of these Charities, which have been established upwards of fifty years, and are supplying a good religious education to upwards of two thousand poor Catholic children. D.D.

Treasurer-General.

C. Cavendish, Esq., 2 The Terrace, Ryde, Isle of Wight.

Secretary-General.

F. A. Sass, Esq., 83 Gloucester-place, Portman-square.

The Charity is established in the following parishes : St. Mary, Westminster : SS. Peter and Edward, Westminster ; the Assumption, Warwick-street ; St. Mary, Chelsea ; St. Aloysius, Somers-town ; St. James, Spanish-place ; St. Patrick, Soho ; St. John the Evangelist, Islington ; Our Lady's Church, St. John's-wood ; St.

Anselm and St. Cecilia, Lincoln's-inn-fields ; the Oratory, Brompton ; Our Lady of the Rosary, Marylebone-road ; St. Anne, Spicer-street, Spitalfields.

This Charity has for its object to assist the clergy in providing for children whose faith or morals are exposed to imminent danger through the death or helplessness of their parents. Weekly subscriptions from the poor are systematically collected by its active members throughout the parishes in which it is established ; and the proceeds of these collections, with the subscriptions and donations of the more affluent, are applied, under the control of the parochial clergy, in providing for children within their parish. By delegations from each affiliated parish, a central council is constituted : which, without in any way fettering the freedom of action of each parish within its own limits, promotes harmony, secures increased efficiency, develops larger general results, and provides for extraordinary contingencies out of the general fund at its disposal.

Contributions to the Central Fund will be thankfully received by the Directors ; by Rear-Admiral Manners, 8 Henrietta-street, Cavendish-square ; Charles Cavendish, Esq., Treasurer, 2 The Terrace, Ryde, Isle of Wight ; and by F. A. Sass, Esq., Secretary, 83 Gloucester-place, Portman-square.

Contributions to the Local Funds may be paid to the Chaplains or Secretaries of the districts.

THE SISTERS OF CHARITY OF ST. VINCENT OF PAUL,

Carlisle-place, Victoria-street, Westminster

(Near the Victoria Station).

Under the patronage of his Grace the Archbishop of Westminster and the Rev. Father Clare, S.J.

The House of Charity contains the following works: an orphanage, work-room, and a day middle-school for girls; classes of preparation for first Communion and catechistical instruction on Sundays for girls also; an infant asylum and nursery; a night-school for men and boys; and the daily visiting and relieving of the poor and sick of the two parishes of Westminster, one of the most destitute parts of London.

At the same time that the Sisters return grateful thanks for the kindness of many generous benefactors, they are compelled to entreat the continuance and increase of the charitable assistance which is absolutely needed for the carrying out of these various works of mercy. A heavy debt still weighs upon the house: the support of the Sisters, and of many of the poor children under their care, depends on casual subscriptions and donations.

Yearly subscriptions, however small their amount, would be gladly accepted, and can be remitted to the Rev. Father Clare, S.J., 111 Mount-street, W.; the Rev. Father Cardwell, 12 Earl-street, Westminster; the Rev. Father Bown, 25 Palace-street, Westminster; the Lady Georgiana Fullerton, 27 Chapel-street, Park-lane; or the Sister Superioress, Carlisle-place, Victoria-street, Westminster.

Plain and fine needlework wanted for the work-room.

Under the special patronage of his Grace the Archbishop of

This Institution is certified by the Poor-Law Board for the education of workhouse boys from eight to sixteen years of age. The number of boys now in the School is 400. According to the recent Poor-Law Act, Boards of Guardians may be compelled by the Poor-Law Board to send our Catholic boys to this School. This has necessitated an enlargement of the premises, upon which there is a debt of 2800*l.* Towards defraying this debt, the contributions of the public are earnestly solicited.

Subscriptions to this good and great work will be thankfully received by his Grace the Archbishop of Westminster, and by the Administrator, Rev. Thomas Seddon, 8 York-place, W., to whom application is to be made for the admission of boys, and also for apprenticing them to masters.

CONVENT OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD,

Glazenwood, near Braintree, Essex.

Numbers of poor souls, Protestants as well as Catholics, especially from the East End of London, are deprived of what seems to be their only hope of conversion, from want of room in the Asylum at Hammersmith; therefore, with the help of a charitable benefactor, and at the desire of his Grace the Archbishop of Westminster, we have placed here a small community.

The present house may accommodate about fifty, whom we receive as in our other houses, and employ them in needle and farm work. The railway from Bishopsgate Station makes it easy to send these poor children to us; and we humbly ask some little assistance both for the first needs of a beginning, and to enable us to increase our work.

The account for this Convent is at the London and Westminster Bank, 1 St. James's-square; and Post-Office Orders can be made payable at Braintree, to Mrs. Amy Weld, the Superioress.

Postage-stamps are a still more easy manner of sending a small alms, for which, as for all else, prayers and communions are gratefully offered.

ST. ALOYSIUS'S SCHOOL,

Clarendon-square, Somers-town, N.W.

Conducted by the Sisters, Faithful Companions of Jesus.

Patron—His Grace the Archbishop of Westminster.

Temporal Director—The Rev. J. Bamber.

The Religious Ladies, who for the last thirty-nine years have conducted this school, appeal to the Catholic public for assistance to enable them to continue their work of charity. It is now more than half a century since this school was established for the education of Catholic children, during which time many have been the blessings which it has been the means of imparting. Under the care of these Religious the children receive a solid English education; they are trained up to habits of industry, and are taught a thorough and practical knowledge of our holy faith. Each pupil is provided with good board and lodging, and taught those things most suitable for her future position in life, whether she remain an inmate of her family, or be engaged in business, or seek her means of livelihood in service. They are also instructed in needlework, which is taken in at the school and carefully executed.

The terms are 12*l.* per annum, exclusive of clothes and school-books. Some, who are orphans, are educated free of all expense.

Besides the boarding-school there are attached to this establishment day-schools, in which the children receive gratuitous education.

This establishment suffered an irreparable loss in the death of the saintly Rev. Father Nerinckx, who, for more than half a century, watched over these schools with more than parental care and affection. He has gone to receive the reward of his labours and charities ; but the poor children have to deplore the loss of a father and protector. It is to be hoped that the good work which he commenced, and so successfully carried on, will be long continued after him by the generous support of the Catholic public.

Subscriptions and donations will be thankfully received by the Very Rev. Monsignor Canon Searle, Manor House, Little Ilford, Essex, E. ; Rev. J. Bamber, Thorndon Hall, Brentwood ; at the London Joint-Stock Bank, 69 Pall-mall ; or by the Superioress, at the Convent.

THE ORPHANAGE OF ST. PHILIP NERI,

Oliver-road, Monument-lane, Birmingham.

The object of this Orphanage is to train up religiously poor orphan boys, and to find situations of work for them when they are old enough to take them.

The pension is 12*l.* per annum, with an entrance-fee of 10*s.*

Apply to the Rev. H. Austin Mills, the Oratory, Edgbaston, Birmingham, by whom donations and subscriptions will be thankfully received.

MARYVALE ORPHANAGE,

Perry Barr, near Birmingham.

Terms : for children under 10 years, 10*l.* per annum.

This Orphanage, established by the Bishop of Birmingham in 1851, is under the care of the Sisters of Mercy. Donations and annual subscriptions towards the support of the children, as well as orders for plain altar linen, or plain needlework of any kind, are urgently needed, and will be most thankfully received by the Superioress.

When no outfit is provided for a child, an entrance-fee of 1*l.* is usually charged.

N.B. Post-office orders and cheques should be made payable to Mrs. Jane Buggins, Perry Barr.

ST. FRANCIS'S ORPHANAGE,

Pantasaph, Holywell.

Under the special patronage of his Lordship the Bishop of Shrewsbury.

The Sisters of Charity of our Lady of Mercy, having the care of two Poor-schools attached to St. David's Church, have also the management of an Orphanage for Girls.

Children are admitted at a yearly pension of ten pounds. A limited number of five orphans are maintained gratis. In proportion to the contributions of subscribers towards this charitable end, this number will be increased.

For information and subscriptions, apply to the Superioress, Madame Smarius, Pantasaph, Holywell.

ST. MARY'S HOSPITAL, OR HOME FOR INCURABLES.

Lately removed from the Convent of St. Dominic, Stone, to the Convent of our Lady of Angels, Stoke-upon-Trent, Staffordshire.

This Hospital is intended for the reception of female patients of good character afflicted with incurable diseases, with the view of providing them with a happy home for life, where they can receive all the care their suffering state requires. The annual pension is 15*l.*; entrance fee, 2*l.*

Annual subscriptions, even of small sums, would materially assist this institution, by enabling the Religious to receive a larger number of patients gratuitously, and donations of clothing, bedding, and old linen would be most welcome.

Contributions will be thankfully received at the Convent of St. Dominic, Stone; at the Convent of our Lady of Angels, Stoke-upon-Trent; and also by the Very Rev. Canon Northcote, D.D., President of St. Mary's College, Oscott, near Birmingham.

ST. ELIZABETH'S INSTITUTE, 64 Breckfield-road South, Liverpool.

A home for poor and unprotected young girls. Besides being carefully instructed in their religion, they are taught reading, writing, and arithmetic, but only to the extent of the requirements of a servant. They are under the management of ladies, who, by the fact of having the regulation of their own households, may be deemed competent to train them in every department of domestic work. In short, it is their sole aim, after making them good Christians, to make them industrious, sensible, clean, and honest servants.

The charity of the faithful is earnestly solicited towards the support of this Institution, and will be gratefully received by the Right Rev. Dr. Goss, Bishop of Liverpool; the Rev. Henry Finch, Director; Mrs. N. Roskell, the President of the Institution; and Miss Gordon, the Superioress.

CAMBRIDGE.

Cambridge sadly needs a larger church. A good freehold site has been secured and paid for. The only sum in hand is 50*l.*, the gift of a kind friend at a distance. Without the generous aid of such friends, prudence forbids us to begin the much prayed for, much needed church.

Contributions will be thankfully acknowledged by the Lord Bishop of Northampton, and by Canon (Thomas) Quinlivan, 3 Hills-road, Cambridge.

The next Annual Bazaar will be held on Wednesday, 11th January 1871.

Contributions will be thankfully received by the Rev. George Porter, S.J., President, 8 Salisbury-street ; Mr. John Riding, Treasurer, Huyton ; Mr. John Lomax, jun., Secretary, 17 Cumberland-street ; and by the Matron, Miss McNab.

APPEAL TO THE PEOPLE AND FRIENDS OF PECKHAM MISSION.

It is a well known and acknowledged fact, that we were compelled by an imperative necessity to provide for the spiritual wants of the continually increasing number of Catholics in this neighbourhood by building a large church for their accommodation.

In erecting this church, great care has been taken to avoid all superfluous expense, and that the building, though spacious and even elegant, should be quite plain.

When the building was commenced, the existing funds being inadequate to the intended purpose, we were obliged to obtain a loan of 3000*l.*, and subsequently a further sum of 1000*l.* Since the erection of our church we have been enabled to reduce the debt by 400*l.* (besides paying the interest of five per cent), thus leaving a debt of 3600*l.*

The creditor of the 3000*l.* having recalled the sum due to him, we have been obliged to raise a new loan in order to satisfy his claim. In doing this we have endeavoured to place ourselves in such a position as may enable us to liquidate the debt by degrees. Thanks to one of our kindest friends, we have obtained the loan, and on such terms, that by an annual payment of 237*l.* in twenty years the debt of 3000*l.* will have entirely disappeared. In order to effect this we were compelled to mortgage all our premises—church, monastery, the old chapel, and ground. By this new arrangement it is plainly visible that we must absolutely provide the above-mentioned sum of 237*l.* yearly, or lose our beautiful church and all our other premises; no other choice is left us. Can our flock, can our friends, can any Catholic hear this without a shudder? And yet this will be the natural and positive consequence if nothing is done to enable us to meet this annual claim.

Much has been done by the people of our congregation, but it will need all their efforts to save us from this terrible result. I am well aware that the present is a bad time to make appeals, therefore I ask as little as possible.

In our congregation we have more than 3000 Catholics. Now, taking away the children and the very poor, and all who cannot give anything, there would remain the third part, that is, 1000 persons, who would be able to give some contribution; and if each of these Catholics and friends would be as willing as they are able to give one penny weekly, we should have 4*l.* 3*s.* per week, which would amount to 215*l.* 16*s.* per year, almost sufficient to save us from the danger of this great loss. It is this weekly penny I ask for; it is this which will disburden our heart of a heavy weight, and free us from a continual anxiety. Will my request be deemed importunate, indiscreet, or unnecessary? To believe it would be so considered, would be to wound the religious and generous feelings of those to whom I appeal.

The success of this application is of the utmost importance to the Mission, as upon it depends the existence of the church; and I am quite confident that no one who is able will fail to give his mite for such an urgent and noble purpose.

As the full success of this plan depends entirely on the way of giving and receiving the contributions, I propose, in order to render it as convenient as possible to the contributors, to collect the pence in three different ways, either of which can be chosen by them: 1st, they may be given to the collectors, who have very kindly offered their services, and who will call at the houses of those who would prefer to be so called upon; 2d, they may be given to any of the Fathers or Brothers at the Monastery, with the names of the givers; 3d, the contributors may place them in the mission-box at the church-door, wrapped in a paper marked with their respective names.

The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass will be offered up every Friday in honour of our Lady of Seven Dolours, for the spiritual and temporal welfare of the contributors and the collectors, and for the repose of the souls of their departed relations and friends.

May our Lady of Seven Dolours, under whose patronage we have the happiness to be, look with an eye of pity upon this congregation, and obtain from her Divine Son a plentiful reward for the generosity of the contributors and the efforts of the collectors, and protect the flock, the pastors, and the church.

FATHER EMIDIUS, O.S.F.C.

Monastery, Peckham, October 16, 1870.

St. George's, October 1st, 1869.

DEAR FATHER EMIDIUS,—While every one admires the church erected by the Capuchin Fathers, as uniting simplicity with elegance and architectural taste, it is sad to think that your congregation can do little towards lessening the heavy debt of 3600*l.* that will remain at the end of January next.

You began your work without any debt on the chapel, schools, and monastery, and you undertook it because it was absolutely needed by your increasing flock.

There has been no want of economy in your work, and you have struggled to avoid every risk of leaving a burden on your successors. I hope that many blessings will be granted to all who help you to pay off this debt, and to deal justly towards those to whom the money is owing.—Yours sincerely in Christ,

✠ THOMAS GRANT.

"CATECHISM OF CHRISTIAN DOCTRINE,

Approved for the use of the Faithful in all the Dioceses of England and Wales,"

Familiarly explained by the Rev. PATRICK POWER,

Translator of "Orsini's Life of the Blessed Virgin," "Orsini's History of Devotion to the Blessed Virgin."

"A work of the greatest practical utility, and one of which we cannot speak in too high a manner. For order of arrangement, for judicious brevity, combined with sufficient fulness of matter, and for general usefulness to the missionary priest, we know of no work on the Catechism more worthy commendation than that of the Rev. Patrick Power."—The Pastor and his People, chap. vii. "Catechetical Instruction," by Rev. Thomas J. Potter.

"Well adapted for the use of upper schools and of pupil and other teachers, for whom such a manual was much wanted."—Right Rev. JAMES BROWN, Bishop of Shrewsbury.

"I consider your Catechism a beautiful and a useful work—I think the best in the English language."—Rev. THOMAS LONGMAN, Vice-President, Sedgley-park College.

Being requested by you to examine the new Organ in the Roman Catholic Church of St. Wilfrid, York, we beg to say that we have done so, and have great pleasure in stating that we consider it to be an excellent instrument and well adapted for the church,—the tone of all the stops being very good, and beautifully balanced one towards another; the touch and general mechanism also being excellent. We consider this Organ to be an instrument that does the builders, Messrs. Forster and Andrews, great credit.

BURNS AND CO.'S NEW 2s. UNIVERSAL PRAYER-BOOK.

A MARVEL OF CHEAPNESS:

More than 1000 pages for two shillings!

Thirty-third Thousand.

THE PATH TO HEAVEN;

THE CHEAPEST AND MOST COMPLETE BOOK OF DEVOTIONS FOR PUBLIC OR PRIVATE USE EVER ISSUED.

It comprises:

1. All the usual Devotions for Morning and Evening, Prayers before and after Mass, for Confession, Communion, the Sacraments, the Sick, &c. &c., with many new additions.

2. Litanies, Novenas, Devotions, and Hymns, in regular order, for every month in the year (including Indulged Prayers), intended for use in Evening Services in churches, as well as in private. This is an entirely novel feature, and will, it is presumed, make the Volume a sine quâ non in every Mission.

3. Offices: besides Vespers, Compline, Office of Immaculate Conception, &c., it comprises the "Bona Mors," Novenas, and other Devotions, used by the Jesuit, Redemptorist, Oratorian Fathers, &c. Also, Daily Meditations and the EPISTLES AND GOSPELS for the year.

4. The most copious and varied collection of Hymns and Sacred Songs hitherto published (in number 293). This part of the work has been revised with great care, so as to secure its freedom from the inferior matter too often found in such collections, and thus fit it for a book of reading and meditation as well as for singing. Music for the Hymns, One Shilling.

The work has the Imprimatur of the ARCHBISHOP OF WESTMINSTER, and has also been noticed by the chief Ecclesiastical Authorities in Ireland and Scotland in the following terms:

"The abundance and excellence of the Devotions and Hymns contained in the PATH TO HEAVEN, and the judicious arrangement which has been made of them, will secure for it a high place among the most favourite books of devotion for public or private use."

THE CARDINAL ARCHBISHOP OF DUBLIN.

"I have looked through the PATH TO HEAVEN, and find it very complete; I think I may say unprecedentedly so. I heartily approve of it, and recommend it to the Catholic body."

BISHOP STRAIN, Vic.-Apost., East Dist., Scotland.

A large number of other recommendations from Bishops and Clergy have also been received.

Witt's compositions have had an immense success throughout the whole Catholic world. He is the first composer of the present day who has seen the necessity of having recourse to the great master pieces of the middle ages in order to regenerate the Church music which had almost become profane. He has therefore closely followed the Musica Divina published by Proske of whom he is at once the ablest and most devoted pupil. He fully deserves to be called the regenerator of the Church music of Germany and all his compositions have obtained the unanimous approval of the most distinguished writers of every country.

EPPS'S COCOA

FOR BREAKFAST.

PREPARED BY JAMES EPPS & CO.

THE "CIVIL SERVICE GAZETTE" SAYS—

"There are very few simple articles of food which can boast so many valuable and important dietary properties as Cocoa. While acting on the nerves as a gentle stimulant, it provides the body with some of the purest elements of nutrition, and at the same time corrects and invigorates the action of the digestive organs. These beneficial effects depend in a great measure upon the manner of its preparation, but of late years such close attention has been given to the growth and treatment of Cocoa, that there is no difficulty in securing it with every useful quality fully developed.—The singular success which Mr. Epps attained by his homœopathic preparation of Cocoa has never been surpassed by any experimentalist."

GRATEFUL.

EPPS'S COCOA.

COMFORTING.

HOMEOPATHIC CHEMISTS.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application to the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast-tables with a delicately-flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us, ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."
